- Q Is it worth applying for the audition if a student is not already at a high grade?
- A We cannot prescribe a standard so candidates can apply at whatever level they are currently at. However, past candidates who have been recommended to the Governors have been of the equivalent of between a Grade 4 and Grade 7 and with good responses to the Aural Tests. (Students do not have to have taken these exams).

- A No, but students can bring mark sheets or certificates if they wish.
- Q Can a student bring along an accompanist?

- A Results are sent by letter. If parents/carers have not received a letter by the end of the following week, then the School can be contacted for the results.
- Q Can I apply for a place at The King's School under the music criteria before my child has sat the Music Audition?
- A It is advisable to wait until after the result of the Audition is known to ensure that the child has been recommended by The King's School for a music place.
